SPURS AND SLOPES

BY JILL K. ROBINSON

The town of Jackson, Wyoming, draws adventurers of many kinds. Celebrities seek solitude, skiers stake out perfect powder, and wildlife lovers flock to Yellowstone and Grand Teton national parks. Jackson is home to world-class restaurants and resorts, but jeans and cowboy boots are welcome at all of them.

TRAVEL DEEPER

EXPERIENCE A PLACE FROM THE INSIDE OUT

DRINK

Half the fun of skiing and snowboarding is the post-slope dining and drinking scene. Lately, Jackson has elevated its options. Here are the best ways to warm up this winter.

1. BIN 22

At this bottle shop-cum-tapas bar (above), the wood-planked ceiling and metal accents give off the vibe of an elegant tasting room.

What to Drink

Celebrate the holidays with a custom flight of prosecco, brut rosé, and lambrusco. 200 W. Broadway, (307) 739-9463.
