Il Villagio Osteria, Jackson, Wyoming

While Jackson Hole fills up with tourists in both summer and winter every year, August 21 is slated to be the busiest day in the town's history. Grab an alfresco seat and a salumi platter at this upscale Teton Village spot. The restaurant offers refined takes on classic dishes with wood-fired pizzas, homemade pastas, local game and sustainable seafood specials in line with Monterey Bay Aquarium Seafood Watch's guidance. It's paired with a multi-page Italian-centric wine list.
