

I've swooned my fair share of rustic nuptials, but to be totally honest? This is probably my new fave. It's the wedding that lets the stunning landscape do all the talking, with a few well-edited nods of color and style infused along the way. Of course, the straight-from-a-magazine images by Carrie Patterson only add to my obsession and if you're looking for more, you can find it right here.

What was on your menu?

Bison! We also had a million appetizers because our cocktail "hour" was two hours long. We also served pie instead of cake
