When it's time to fuel up after a long day on the slopes, head to a local mainstay like Teton Thai or Bin22. (Teton Thai's best-selling massaman curry will warm you from the inside out.)

TPG tip: A member of Marriott's Autograph Collection, The Cloudveil provides a well-appointed and laid-back stay near Jackson, Wyoming's Town Square. It has 100 handsome rooms warmed up with wood and leather, and The Bistro, which turns out hearty, all-day European fare. Accommodations are available from $550 or 73,000 Marriott Bonvoy points per night in January.
