At Bodega, you can stock up on whatever you need – including a frozen cocktail. Bodega

Best food market: Bodega

Bodega evokes a New York City corner store, and adds a bit of Western flair. Located at the base of Jackson Hole Mountain Resort in Teton Village, this shop has everything you need for an après-ski (or après-hike) get-together.

Pop in for a bottle of wine, a six-pack of craft beer, a bag of chips, charcuterie fixings, locally raised meats and other gourmet products, as well as pantry staples. Or sidle up to the intimate bar for a “sloshie” – a refreshingly boozy frozen drink ($10.99 for 16 ounces) available in a rotating selection of flavors. For more-practical needs, you can also fill up your car with gas and stock up on firewood. And if you don’t feel like cooking during the warmer months, Bodega also runs a food truck serving up hearty casual eats like tacos, burgers, brats, fried-chicken sandwiches and tater tots.
