

The 10 Best Wine Bars in Wyoming!

By T.B. Yerden

1. Bin 22, Jackson, WY

The owner, a sommelier, conjured memories of an Italian visit and realized a vino-culinary dream. The result? It's an authentic wine bar, a small, specialty grocer, and a slinger of decent tapas. The everyday, Mediterranean European aesthetic is embraced: a ritual of hanging at high-top tables, sampling wines by the glass and picking from a succession of delicious, small plates. Tapas literally translates to "tops" (as in lids), like the round dishes upon which rest scrumptious bites of vitello tonnato crostini and duck rilette. Refer to the chalkboard for daily wine specials.

brucergordon
Bin22

Follow