9 Reasons You Should Finally Go to Jackson Hole (No Skiing Required)

The ultimate itinerary, according to a local.

EAT

Located on Glenwood Street just a block from the Town Square, The Kitchen offers New American cuisine with a raw bar serving up a healthy offering of sushi. This is a spot where you can often walk in and get either a seat at the bar or a table without reservations. My recommendation: the bison tartare.

STAY

The Cloudveil is centrally located on the Town Square in Jackson and provides a modern, rustic elegance. It also helps that it has an excellent Parisian brasserie-style restaurant in-house called The Bistro and a comfortable lounge to enjoy live music and cocktails while feeling the vibe of the town.
