The unfettered beauty of the mountainous Wyoming landscape is reason enough to head there for Thanksgiving, particularly for outdoor enthusiasts. Take in the region's rugged peaks and breathtaking wildlife (from a safe distance) and unwind in one of the most relaxing places in the world. Use The Cloudveil as your home base while in town and reserve a seat at the onsite restaurant for a multicourse, prix fixe Thanksgiving lunch with dishes like garlicky escargot vol au vent, oven-roasted turkey, house-made pesto bucatini pasta, roasted chestnut soup, and homemade pies. The next day, work off your meal with a bike ride or hike, and don't miss the town square lighting on November 26 with hot chocolate and caroling.
