After an exhilarating day on the slopes, some of the participants in the Terra Women's Camp in Jackson Hole put their feet up

Thankfully, everyone loosened up at the welcome dinner that night and it set the tone for the rest of the camp – ski hard during the day and, for those who wanted, party at night in the resort or in the town of Jackson, a 20-minute shuttle/taxi ride away. Some preferred to indulge themselves in Hotel Terra's roof-top hot tub or at the luxurious spa. Teton village itself offers a wide choice of restaurants, cafés and bars: my favourite was Il Viallaggio Osteria at the Hotel Terra which served up an imaginative menu of Italian fare (beef cheek ravioli and Barolo-braised short ribs).
