

September 23 L.A. Loves Alex's Lemonade hosted by James Beard Foundation award winners chef Suzanne Goin and Caroline Styne along with chef David Lentz, conduct a culinary cookout at UCLA. It features a star-studded chef lineup including Nancy Silverton and Gavin Fine. Eat, drink, and bid on silent auction items to raise funds for childhood cancer treatments. Tickets are $255 per person. alexslemonade.org

HERE FOR THE WEEKEND?

Check out these fun events happening around town. For more L.A. events, head over to SoCalPulse.com

VISIONARY WOMEN X OUTSTANDING IN THE FIELD

September 10

The nonprofit organization Visionary Women, in partnership with Outstanding in the Field, hosts an evening at the Malibu Pier. The event offers a unique culinary experience that includes a multicourse dinner amid female entrepreneurs and leaders in business. A portion of the event's proceeds benefit Women's Earth Alliance, an organization that helps mitigate climate change. Tickets are $495. visionarywomen.com

CLUB 57 SOCIETY: PSYCHEDELIC DADA DAY-GLO HAPPENING September 17

The Broad contemporary art museum and performance artist Ann Magnuson team up for an evening of glitter and glam. Inspired by legendary artist Keith Haring's Party of Life and events that took place at New York's legendary Club 57, the evening features short films, DJs, and art. Tickets include access to the Broad's special exhibition Keith Haring: Art Is for Everybody. thebroad.org

SPIDER PAVILION AT THE NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM September 17 through November 26

This seasonal pavilion gives you a sneak peek into the lives of these creepy crawlers. Peer through glass-enclosed habitats to view all manner of spiders. Admission is $8 for a timed ticket in addition to museum admission or free with a membership. nhm.org/spiders

POOLSIDE MOVIE AT THE BEVERLY HILLS HOTEL

September 20

Enjoy a screening of Troop Beverly Hills poolside at the Beverly Hills Hotel. Guests can reserve a private cabana priced at $1,700 for up to four guests, which includes a pre-fixe dinner menu inspired by the movie, signature cocktails, themed desserts, and access to the concession stand. sevenrooms.com/events/thecabanacafepool

TIM MEADOWS AT THE WALLIS September 22

Tim Meadows, former Saturday Night Live cast member, performs a night of standup comedy at the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts. thewallis.org