These are the special, local-style dishes proud caterers are churning out for nuptials across the country.

Wyoming: Elk

Native to the area, elk is just about as Wyoming as it gets — and it's also an incredibly tasty and versatile game meat. "Many couples choose to serve elk at their wedding to offer a Wyoming-inspired alternative to the traditional red meat," explains Kendra Alessandro, of Bistro Catering in Jackson Hole. "Because of its versatility, elk can be served in a variety of ways, however, one of our most-popular dishes is a roasted rack of elk with gratin dauphinoise and red wine pepper corn gastrique."
