America's Best Ski Resorts: Jackson Hole, WY

"The Red Heli," Jackson Hole's tram, is a ski world icon that whisks guest up the highest vertical drop of any resort in the country in under ten minutes. Photo: Jackson Hole Mountain Resort

BEST OFF-MOUNTAIN DINING: In Teton Village, Il Villaggio Osteria in the Hotel Terra is about as good as ski town Italian fare gets outside of Italy, while local's favorite Teton Thai is one of ski food's greatest hidden gems – ask where it is. In town, Bin 22 is a unique tapas, craft cured meats and wine bar with attached wine store, meaning great bottle selection with no markup. Snake River Grille is the longtime king of the town's fine dining scene, while beloved French/Western hybrid Rendezvous Bistro shines with everything from elk tartare to Jackson's first raw bar.
