Following a recent trip to Jackson Hole, Wyo., chef Ryan Hardy of Delicious Hospitality Group in New York City touted the fried chicken at The Bistro and the crispy chicken sandwich at the Bodega food truck. "Growing up in Kentucky, I know when I come across delicious fried chicken," Hardy says. "The fried chicken sandwich at Bodega is not only perfectly crispy and tasty, it's also affordable and easy to enjoy on the spot or on the go when in Teton Village." Hardy adds that he also loved the fried chicken special at The Bistro: "It's no wonder it sells out every week!"
