

Where to Stay in Jackson Hole for the Most Lavish Getaway

These are the top spots to book for your next trip to the Wyoming ski town.

While Jackson Hole is perhaps best known as a luxurious yet low-key ski resort town, replete with private cabins and chalets, there's so much more to the picturesque Wyoming locale than just snowy mountains in the winter. Yes, skiing is a huge part of Jackson Hole's appeal, thanks to the impressive array of alpine ski runs and terrain, but the destination is also a dream vacation spot for all kinds of outdoor enthusiasts, with access to Grand Teton National Park and Yellowstone National Park as well as the National Elk Refuge. There are plenty of winter activities aside from skiing, including snowshoeing, snowmobiling, sledding and, of course, a lively après-ski scene. That's not to say Jackson Hole is exclusively a winter destination; if you are visiting in the warmer months, there are countless adventures and activity options, including whitewater rafting, hiking, biking, kayaking and more.

Don't fret if you're not sure where to stay out west in America, as Jackson Hole also boasts an impressive high-end hotel scene, from longtime historic mainstays and secluded boutique properties to modern luxury lodges and Western-themed accommodations. Below, see the best luxury hotels to book for your next getaway to Jackson Hole.

The Cloudveil, an Autograph Collection Hotel

112 Center St, Jackson, WY 83001

Opened in 2021, the Cloudveil is a newer addition to the Jackson Hole hotel scene. It's conveniently situated right on the Town Square in downtown Jackson, with interiors inspired by Jackson Hole's natural landscape, starting with a massive stone boulder and locally-made desk blotter at the check-in desk. The 100 guest rooms and suites are fitted with custom wood and leather furniture, in addition to a fireplace, flat screen TVs and wifi. For dining, there's The Bistro, a Parisian brasserie-style eatery, as well as a rooftop terrace with impressive mountain views. There's also a fitness center, pool and hot tub.
