Riddell named Citizen of the year in chamber awards

Fine Dining Restaurant Group was honored as Large Business of the Year for the Quarantine Cuisine Program, which delivered over 1,100 bags of free groceries and almost 1,000 free prepared meals as many residents were forced into quarantine.

“The idea and much of the work was thanks to Cynthia Hogan and was so successful thanks also to Hole Food Rescue, Jackson Whole Grocer, Hola Spanish Academy & Services and the Community of Jackson Hole,” the chamber said.
