JACKSON HOLE

Photojournalist Rex Gelert takes us on his latest journey to Jackson Hole, where, at every turn, he found a photo op

My wife and I found the ideal family getaway that's as fulfilling for all as a Pixar movie. It's the Four Seasons Jackson Hole, ideally located in Teton Village, Wyoming. There's a long, long checklist of fun family activities like hiking, biking, ballooning, horseback riding, rafting, climbing and more. Getting hungry? Check out Il Villagio Osteria for some tasty Italian fare. For one-of-a-kind jewelry or souvenirs, look no further than the hotel's gift shop. Try a massage at the world-class 12,000-sq-ft spa. From the grandeur of the mountain backdrop to the world-renowned accommodations, this Four Seasons hotel lives up to its brand name. Visit fourseasonsjacksonholewy.com
